DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on February 17, 2009 has been entered.

Status of Claims

2. Claims 1-93 are currently pending. The rejections are as stated below.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 75-87 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Specifically, claim 75 recites a system, but it is unclear if applicant is claiming an apparatus or a method. Accordingly, the claim recites the system comprising a first processor generating payment identification..." and "a second processor... receiving the payment identification..." As such, the claim recites both the structure of a system, and the method steps of a system, and it is not clear which statutory category is being claimed.

Art Unit: 3691

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

5. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

6. Claims 1-74 and 88-93 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. Specifically, the claim are directed to a system comprising a "system" and various "interfaces" (according to claims 1 and 43) or a "system" and various "software components" (according to claim 61). Therefore, the system could be considered to be entirely comprised of software. Since software, per se, is not a patentable subject matter, the claims are directed to a non-statutory invention.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. The subject matter of claims 1-93 is considered allowable over the prior art.

Art Unit: 3691

8. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: Applicant's arguments are persuasive and the previous rejections under 35 U.S.C. 102 and 103 are hereby withdrawn. No prior art of record, either alone or in combination teaches the newly presented features of claims 1, 43, 61, and 75. No further prior art can be reasonably combined to teach said features. See Applicant's arguments filed February 17, 2009, pages 25-27.
